Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service

You, or the person who can claim you as a dependent, may be able to claim an education credit on Form 1040 or Form 1040A. This statement has been furnished to you by an eligible educational institution in which you are enrolled, or by an insurer who makes reimbursements or refunds of qualified tuition and related expenses to you. This statement is required to support any claim for an education credit. Retain this statement for your records. To see if you qualify for a credit, and for help in calculating the amount of your credit, see Pub. 970, Form 8863, and the Form 1040 or 1040A instructions.

Student's taxpayer identification number (TIN). For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your SSN, ITIN, ATIN, or EIN. However, the issuer has reported your complete TIN to the IRS. Caution: If your TIN is not shown in this box, your school was not able to provide it. Contact your school if you have questions.

Box 1. Shows the total payments received in 2017 from any source for qualified tuition and related expenses less any reimbursements or refunds made during 2017 that relate to those payments received during 2017.

Box 3. Shows whether your educational institution changed its reporting method for 2017. It has changed its method of reporting if the method (payments received or amounts billed) used for 2017 is different than the reporting method for 2016. You should be aware of this change in figuring your education credits.

Box 5. Shows the total of all scholarships or grants administered and processed by the eligible educational institution. The amount of scholarships or grants for the calendar year (including those not reported by the institution) may reduce the amount of the education credit you claim for the year.

Box 6. Shows adjustments to scholarships or grants for a prior year. This amount may affect the amount of any allowable tuition and fees deduction or education credit that you claimed for the prior year. You may have to file an amended income tax return (Form 1040X) for the prior year.

Box 8. Shows whether you are considered to be carrying at least one-half the normal full-time workload for your course of study at the reporting institution.

Box 10. Shows the total amount of reimbursements or refunds of qualified tuition and related expenses made by an insurer. The amount of reimbursements or refunds for the calendar year may reduce the amount of any education credit you can claim for the year (may result in an increase in tax liability for the year of the refund).

Calendar Year 2017

Indiana University is required to report only specific types of transactions on Form 1098-T. Please note that this form may not reflect all eligible transactions that a taxpayer may use to compute their income tax credit or deduction. The IRS expects the taxpayer to maintain adequate records to support any information used when preparing their individual income tax return. Form 1098-T is an informational statement intended to serve as a guide for the taxpayer. The taxpayer should refer to their own financial records when calculating the eligible amount that can be claimed for any educational related income tax credits or deductions.

Please refer to IRS Publication 970 (www.irs.gov) or the "Tax Benefits for Education: Information Center" located on the IRS website at <http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=213044,00.html> for more information.

Payments applied to qualified tuition and related fees during the calendar year, from any source, are reflected below. Please note, the payments reported may include qualified tuition and related fee payments associated with terms that did not begin during the calendar year.
